A quartette of drunken hoodlums, who imagine they can sing, have fallen into the habit of giving frequent serenades (?) to and annoying the residents of the West End. Last Saturday night they spread it on a little thicker than ever, keeping people awake until the early morning hours and actually taking possession of certain premises under cover of their extraordinary vocal selections. The racket kept up from 10 o'clock until long after midnight, and it was a matter of comment that no relief was offered by the police.

Get Damages Against Standard and Its Agent.

LEXINGTON, Ky., May 15.—The jury in the case of James E. Doyle against the Standard Oil Company and others brought in a verdict at 2 o'clock this afternoon in favor of the plaintiff for $2,000. Of this judgment $2,300 is against the Standard Oil Company and $300 against C. B. Gilman, its local agent. The suit was originally instituted to recover $25,000 damages for malicious prosecution, and is an outgrowth of a bitter oil war between the rival companies doing business here. The case will be appealed.

Curtain Swiss and Net

19c. a Yard Instead of 25c.

An especially attractive line of Swiss and Net for full window or sash curtains came to us at our price. So we mark it to-day to correspond, Thirty-inch pure white Swiss with deep hemstitched hem and broad Cluny lace insertion, 19c. instead of 25c.

Thirty-inch pure white Swiss with deep hemstitched ruffle and one row of dainty braid insertion, 19c. instead of 25c.

For charming, light, airy curtains are four styles in bobinet. Two with lace edge, two with applique. 19c. instead of 25c.

Other dainty curtainings, a host of them, for 12½c. and 15c.

Bargain in Stockings

Think of the greatest bargain you ever got in stockings then see this offering to be convinced it is the best yet. Some odd sizes in black and tan stockings, chiefly in smaller numbers, reduced from 25c. to 15c.

Two lines of women's tan stockings, reduced from 50c. to 25c. Nothing the matter with the stockings—price cut because the demand for tan is less than for other colors and black.

One style is a deep russet shade in very fine lisle, often called silk lisle. Heels, toes and tops tipped with white. 25c. instead of 50c.

The other style is rich dark tan lisle, tipped with white. Made of half inch solid stripes, joined by narrow open-work perpendicular stripes. 25c. instead of 50c.

Stockings any woman will be proud to own, nor will it take an expert to tell their extraordinary value for 25c.

A JOYOUS DAY

For Catholics of This City—Large Class of Boys and Girls Received Their First Holy Communion.

Sunday was indeed a joyous day for the Catholics of this city when, for the first time a class of eighty-nine boys and girls received holy communion. The altars of the church were beautifully decorated for the edifying occasion and the edifice was crowded to the doors. Many were unable to gain admission and were compelled to leave without witnessing the beautiful scene. The hour for mass was 8 o'clock, but long before the appointed time the people began to assemble.

The class met at the residence of the sisters and marched to the church. At the entrance the boys marched up the south aisle lead by Rev. Father Jones, attired in his vestments, and about a dozen altar boys, while one of the good sisters had charge of the girls in the north aisle, headed by a little girl bearing a beautiful white banner, with four silken cords each held by little girls. The banner, pure white, was indeed emblematic of the purity of the souls of the innocent children, who for the first time were to receive holy communion. After mass the children renewed their baptismal vows, were enrolled in the scapulars and the boys pledged themselves to total abstinence.

Rev. Father Jones and the good sisters have been untiring in preparing the children for this grand event for several months past, and with the parents and friends of the little ones had the pleasure of witnessing the fruits of their labor, culminating Sunday morning in the happiest event that ever took place in the grand old edifice.

The three days previous to the reception of the Holy Eucharist, the children spent in retreat, conducted by a Passionist Father who complimented them highly on the manner in which they had been prepared for this important event in their lives.

The procession to the church was witnessed by a large number of people, many of whom waited until after the services to again view the procession as they filed out of the church. The boys attired in black and girls in white, with wreaths and veils, presented a beautiful and inspiring appearance.

The salary of the postmaster at Manchester has been increased from $1,300 to $1,400.

Grand Secretary R. G. Elliott, of Lexington, instituted an Oddfellows lodge at Latonia with forty-two members, Thursday night.

The Executive Committee of the Kentucky Press Association accepted an invitation to hold the next meeting of the association in Lexington, and fixed July 22 as the date.

The eighth annual council of the Diocese of Lexington, and its associated meeting of the Women's Auxiliary, will be held at Shakertown near High Bridge May 25th-28th. Bishop L. W. Burton will preside. The meeting will be under the direction of Gen. and Mrs. John B. Castleman, of Louisville.

Rev. R. E. Mose goes to Richmond, Ky., Thursday where he will deliver the baccalaureate address to the graduates of Madison Female Institute that evening. Next Sunday morning he will preach at the Paris Christian Church and that evening deliver the baccalaureate address to the graduates of Bourbon College.

We doubt if you will ever realize the blessing of thirst unless you refresh yourself with our Soda. People have been trying to improve on beverages ever since Noah's time, and all the progress which has been made in the right direction is exemplified at our fountain.

We have all the popular fountain beverages. They are made right and served right; just as pure and wholesome as they are delicious. Bring in your thirst and let us quench it.
